BE OUR GUEST...

The Latin-German Klub cordially invites the students of Marian to "be their guest" to many prominent places of amusement in and around Indianapolis. The grand prize in their raffle is a book of tickets, good for the next year, to all of the recreational activities listed on their notice on the main bulletin board. Chances on this prize-of-a-lifetime are only 10¢ each, or 3 for 25¢. See any LGK member!

Love that editor!

JUNIORS ON THE TEACHER EDUCATION PROGRAM

Present Juniors on the Teacher Education Program who will be eligible for student teaching during the coming school-year, 1963-64, please notify Sister Mary Giles this afternoon or early next week. The Directors of Student Teaching will need to be supplied with information to assist them in placing you for student teaching.

Also, those who have not participated in "September Experience" activities please pick up forms for making arrangements during the spring vacation.

LATE LENTEN THOUGHT-

Well, here it is - the last week of Lent. This week you are spared from a lenten poem. The time has now come for us to pause a brief moment and reflect. Ask yourself: 1. Did I keep up my Lenten spirit? 2. Was I guilty of breaking any of my Lenten resolutions? 3. Did I take a positive approach this time?

The answers to these questions may vary greatly with the individual, but in no case can anyone say that the CARBON did not encourage him or her to "stay on the straight and narrow path."

The Many Faces of the Marian Bunny

He's a 14-carrot bunny
With sad and droopy ears.
He is often seen at the Home
Buying a glass of (censored) milk.

He's a literary bunny
Who writes on the bathroom wall.
He seems not to realize Pride goeth before the fall.

He's a very athletic bunny
Seen running on the track.
He has spirit and initiative
That some of the bunnies lack.

He's a spastic little bunny
Like Stead or Carolyn Koch.
But things sometimes do turn out
If you leap before you look.

He's an erudite bunny
As the CARBON editors are.
With inside news and witticism
He will sure go far.

He's an executive bunny
On student board he works
He takes up projects
That the laggard bunny shirks.

He is a spirited bunny
And that will cover all.
He will grow to be a good rabbit
And we can paint the wall.

- Good luck to the Sophomores on their STEP Tests, Monday and Tuesday.

- The CARBON applauds the M-Club for helping to buy a new batting cage.

- Happy Birthday to "Big Mike" Cancilla
(April 8)

- Congratulations to the Fioretti Contest Winners - Marian Kaeser, Judy Tishous and Terry Meyer.

- Last chance to buy a chance on the Grundig tape recorder being raffled by the Vet's Club.

ALL THE NEWS THAT'S FIT TO RUIN

The CARBON feels that ample opportunity should be given to our weekly scape-goats to prove themselves, since they fear that they may have been misrepresented to the student body. We are completely stepping out of the CARBON picture on the first week after Easter vacation. That issue will be edited, written and typed by Ruth Morgan, Pat Michael, Mary Ellen Stead, Nancy Kathman, Pat Sabelhaus, Jim McCann and Carolyn Koch - that is if they don't chicken out. We must warn these students that they have to find their own typists. The CARBON typists (bless them) have been forbidden to bang a key that day. Any student who feels that he would like to get his fingers into this edition may state his case to the CARBON editors. (The real ones that is). The CARBON editors would like to wager that these students will call for our help before the issue is completed.

INTERESTED STUDENTS ASK...

Have you read the amendment on the main bulletin board concerning a day representative on the Student Board or better still have you thought about it?
Did you consider these practical problems?

1. Was there student pressure for this amendment or was the pressure mainly from one person?
2. How will the day representative be nominated since no procedure has been set up?
3. Is there an organized body for the representative to represent?
4. Did the Student Board deliberate long enough on this amendment? If so, then why is there no plan for the nomination of the day representative?
